

Funding and Sponsorship

As volunteer not-for-profit organisation the MCF funding is entirely dependent on membership, private donations and sponsorship. Funding includes promotion of the MCF and is primarily reserved for independent research and collaborative research with government, university, and community co-funded projects. For more information on MCF research and development mail to meta@onlinecol.com