

About Us

MCF Founders

The MCF was originally co-founded by L. Michael Hall, Ph.D. and Michelle Duval as a supporting organization for the vision and mission of Meta-Coaching.

L. Michael Hall Ph.D.

Dr. Hall is a modeler of self-actualization excellence in people, groups, and organizations. Over the years his research, using NLP and Neuro-Semantics, has modeled the highest and best and translated that as models and trainings for Coaches, Trainers, and Consultants.

Meta-Coach Trainers are Neuro-Semantic Trainers who have been certified as ACMC Meta-Coaches and have been through a three-year internship. As they are licensed as Meta-Coach Trainers they also comprise the Leadership Team of the MCF. These are the people along with Dr. Hall who are certified and commissioned to teach and train the Meta-Coach Training System. The license has to be renewed every third year. Currently the Board of MCF is made up of the following:

- Omar Salom — Neuro-Semantics, Mexico (2004/ 2008)
- Cheryl Lucas — Neuro-Semantics, South Africa (2007)
- David Murphy — Neuro-Semantics, Mexico (2009)
- Carey Joost — Neuro-Semantics, South Africa (2010)

Meta-Coach Trainers soon to be Licensed:

- Joseph Scott — Neuro-Semantic Trainer, Australia (2010)
- Germaine Rediger — Neuro-Semantic Trainer, Belgium (2011)
- Lena Gray — Neuro-Semantic Trainer, New Zealand (2009 or 2010)
- Femke Stuuut — Neuro-Semantic Trainer, USA
- Lene Fjellheim — Neuro-Semantic Trainer, Norway
